MENTORING GUIDELINES

By signing this Application for Mentoring, you acknowledge your understanding and agreement with the following:

- You may request a new mentor if you leave your firm or practice setting, if the mentoring relationship would break down, or for other similar reasons.
- If you and your Approved Mentor are members of the same firm, governmental agency, or corporate legal department, or other organization, you may not discuss specific legal matters during activities or interactions of the Mentoring Plan.
- You should not disclose confidential client matters to your Mentor. Such disclosure would be a breach of confidentiality.
- No attorney-client relationship exists between you and your Approved Mentor.
- Communications between you and your Approved Mentor are not confidential.
- You have a duty to report any breach of the Disciplinary Rules by your Approved Mentor, even if you learn of that breach through the mentoring relationship.
- Your Approved Mentor has a duty to report any breach of the Disciplinary Rules by you, even if he or she learns of that breach through the mentoring relationship.
- You and your Approved Mentor should avoid accepting representation of any person with interests adverse to those of a person represented by the other.
